

Om talarna

Barnfondens barnrättskonferens

1 december 2021

Klimatet är en barnrättsfråga — och ska behandlas som en sådan!

8.30–9.00

Martina Hibell

Generalsekreterare, Barnfonden

Martina Hibell har jobbat på Barnfonden i drygt tio år, och med internationellt barnfokuserat utvecklingsarbete på olika svenska organisationer sedan 2006, bland annat på plats i Latinamerika. Intresset för utvecklingsfrågor grundades i tonåren och ledde till en magisterexamen i statsvetenskap med inriktning på demokrati och internationell utveckling. Hon drivs av att skapa en hållbar förändring, även i miljöer där det kan verka omöjligt. Under tiden på Barnfonden har Martina utvecklat organisationens programarbete och varit en aktiv medlem i ChildFund Alliance genom olika kommitéer och utskott. Sedan hon tillträdde som generalsekreterare 2020 har hon verkat för ett allt starkare grepp om hur miljö och klimat påverkar barns rättigheter.

Klimatfenomen och barns rättigheter

9.00–10.00

Samtalet leds av Martina Hibell

Erik Kjellström

Professor i klimatologi, SMHI

Erik Kjellström är professor i klimatologi vid SMHI. Han forskar kring klimat och klimatförändring bland annat med hjälp av regionala klimatmodeller. En viktig del i forskningen handlar om hur information från klimatmodeller kan användas för att studera konsekvenser av klimatförändringen samt att bidra till samhällets klimatanpassning.

Thomas Rebermark

Head of Corporate Partnerships, WaterAid

With almost 800 million people without access to clean water, 2 billion people without decent toilets and 3 billion people without possibilities to wash their hands with soap and water, Thomas works to resolve this by engaging the Nordic Private Sector in investing in emerging economies who are in need of advocacy, infrastructure and funding. By doing so, WaterAid Corporate Partnerships are elevating low-income communities out of poverty, while simultaneously contributing to a return on their social impact investment. Thomas Rebermark is a dedicated advocate for positive social change, with a passion for equality, human rights, business-, and organisational development.

As Business Development and Marketing Director for listed telecom, publishing and civil engineering companies, Thomas has gained insights and experience in innovation, change management and successful partnerships. During 2019-20 Thomas chaired Childfund Sweden (Barnfonden) and was member of the Global board of Directors for Childfund Alliance. Thomas is today active in the Election Board for Childfund Sweden and Global Compact Network Sweden.

Rickard Ignell

Professor i kemisk ekologi, SLU

Rickard Ignell är professor i kemisk ekologi vid SLU. Han forskar kring sjukdomsspridande myggor och hur dessa uppfattar och tolkar dofter som omsätts i beteenden. En ny inriktning i hans forskning innefattar konsekvenserna av klimatförändringar på myggornas beteenden.

Paus

10.00–10.20

A Global Perspective

10.20–11.20

This part is moderated by Lovisa Demirci,
Communications Manager, Barnfonden

Prashant Verma
Country Director, ChildFund Kambodja

A well-recognised 30 years of experiences on a range of senior management positions in more than 10 countries in Africa (East, Central and West) and South & South East Asia Regions (India and Cambodia) with world's leading International Development Organisations (CARE International, Concern-Worldwide, PLAN International and ChildFund International) where Prashant have led multi-sectoral, large-scale & transformative programs on both humanitarian and development sectors. Prashant's key expertise includes, designing & leading diverse teams on strategic directions, finding bold-solutions on key issues and developing systematic approach to internalise these processes, shaping a value-driven organic business operating model, localisation through systematic changed-management-processes, establish a high-performance and diverse team, and result-based M&E system using the updated theories of changes.

A recipient of 02 International Awards and honoured with 04 Postgraduate qualifications in the fields of Business Administration, Public Health Administration, Development Economics, and Humanitarian Leadership from renowned British, Australian and Indian Universities.

Neelam Makhijani
Country Director, ChildFund India

Neelam Makhijani, a visionary leader, brings with her over 25 years of diverse and rich work experience in the domains of journalism, communication, fundraising and social development.

Armed with a Master's in Business Administration from London University, Neelam has been serving as Country Director, at ChildFund India for nearly seven years and ChildFund Sri Lanka for almost 2 years, providing dynamic and strategic leadership.

Neelam is passionate about development and inspiring change for maximum impact. She has revitalized ChildFund India and Sri Lanka's core operations by strengthening the organization's ability to fulfil its mandate to children throughout India and Sri Lanka. She has also spearheaded the organization's collaborations with some of the most notable academia, corporates, development agencies as well as government departments and like-minded individuals across India and Sri Lanka. The organization is moving forward to achieve its goal of building a nation where children lead a dignified life and achieve their full potential.

Lilly Omondi

Country Director, ChildFund Ethiopia

Lilly have been in Ethiopia for the last 3 years, was Director Regional Multi-Country Program Unit, with Save the Children, and Country Director for Plan International, Malawi, Program Lead in South Sudan, with Plan International and Operations Program Support Manager also with Plan.

Before that Lilly was with CARE Somalia South Sudan, American Refugee Committee and Canadian International Development Agency. She has over 31 years, experience working in the humanitarian sector and Development sector. Lilly is a Medical Doctor and an Interior Designer, passionate on understanding and sharing on the impact of the environment, and especially climate change on children and especially vulnerable children.

Alice Anukur

Country Director, ChildFund Kenya

Alice is International Development Senior Leader with over 2 decades experience in leading and managing development and humanitarian work for Not- for- Profit organizations in East Africa. She is currently the Country Director of ChildFund International in Kenya. Previously served as Country Director of Oxfam in Rwanda, Associate Regional Director of American Friends Service Committee for Africa, as Country Representative of Water Aid in Uganda and Secretary General of Uganda Red Cross Society.

Prior to that, Alice worked as Head of Programs and Operations for Uganda Red Cross Society. She began her career as Head of Programs for SOCADIDO, in Eastern Uganda in post conflict recovery period. She has proven expertise in Civil Society operations that includes Policy influencing and Advocacy, Start-up and scaling up programs and generating commitment in transforming lives of the poor especially vulnerable women, Youth and Children through multisectoral programs including Peace building, Education, WASH, Integrated Health and Sustainable Livelihoods through agricultural Value Chains, Food Security, Agroforestry and Enterprise Development, DRR, Emergency response, Gender and Development.

Alice holds a Master's degree in Rural Economics and Cooperation, and is passionate about matters- children, youth, women, climate and building partnerships for sustainable development.

Martina Hibell will also join the conversation to talk about how Barnfonden is working to address the effects of climate change and to build resilience for the future.

Mediepanel om varför barnperspektivet inte syns mer i mediernas klimatbevakning?

11.20–11.35

Samtalet leds av Anders Mildner, innehålls- och kommunikationsansvarig på Altitude Meetings

Anna Careborg
Chefredaktör, Svenska Dagbladet

Anna Careborg är chefredaktör och vd på Svenska Dagbladet. Sedan 2015 ger tidningen varje vecka ut SvD Junior, en nyhetstidning för barn och unga.

Jonas Kanje
Chefredaktör, Sydsvenskan

Ursprungligen från Södra Sandby/Lund.
Arbetat som journalist och chef i över 25 år på olika dagstidningar.
Bland annat Barometern, City, Helsingborgs Dagblad och Sydsvenskan.
Chefredaktör på Sydsvenskan sedan maj 2020.
Gift med Anna-Lena (musiklärare). Två barn 12 och 16 år gamla.

Caroline Englund
Digital projektledare, Nya Wermlandstidningen

Caroline Englund, digital projektledare på NWT-koncernen som bland annat leder ett projekt kring hur de olika titlarna i koncernen ska nå en yngre målgrupp. Har tidigare jobbat som journalist på DN, Ekot och Breakit.

Från Bla Bla Bla till Respekt

— så räddar klimat- och barnperspektiv vuxenvärlden från evig skuld och skam

11.35–11.55

Mattias Goldmann

VD, Goldmann Green

Mattias Goldmann har korats till Mäktigast i Hållbarhetssverige, dubbats till riddare av Frankrikes president för sitt klimatarbete och utsetts till Årets Framtidspolitiker. Med boken Klimatsynda! vill han ge oss alla nya ingångar i att göra klimatfrågan mer lätt, lustfyllt och lönsam. Han är nu VD för Goldmann Green och bosatt i Sydostasien, som enligt IPCC är mest utsatt av klimatförändringarna.

Hållbarhetsexperten Mattias Goldmann inspirerar genom att fokusera på möjligheter och ger oss nya infallsvinklar på klimatfrågan.

Avslutande kommentar från Barnfondens generalsekretarie, Martina Hibell

11.55–12.00

Välkommen!

barnfonden

barnfonden.se/konferens